

Behavioral Science Technology, Inc.

BIOGRAPHICAL OUTLINE

COLIN DUNCAN

- Vice President International Operations and Managing Director – BST International (based in England), a consulting firm specializing in behaviour-based performance improvement.
- Extensive experience in designing and delivering organisational change programmes for leading Fortune and European companies.
- Worked with multinational companies to deliver cultural and behavioural change programmes in industries including: Oil&Gas, Power, Utilities, Healthcare, Telecommunications, Agriculture and Finance
- Undertook the successful MBO of one of the worlds leading performance improvement consultancies.
- Led consulting projects with two major UK based organisations leading to national recognition of the projects, involving the delivery of substantial cultural change and realignment.
- Executive consulting with senior teams to deliver improved organisational performance through alignment of culture and strategy.